TCU
Race & Reconciliation
Initiative

RRI at a Glance
From Design to Delivery

How to deliver on the Chancellor's and Board of Trustee's charge to:
"study TCU's relationship with slavery, racism and the Confederacy"

2

Activate research Task Force members to access, annotate and analyze archival data

1

Organize core committee members into 7 Task Forces; each with research questions

[A] Slavery [C] Segregation [E] Voice
[B] Confederacy [D] Desegregation [F] Good Neighbor?
[G] Repair

3

Create contact points for continued conversation through monthly Virtual Town Hall Meetings, "Doc Talks" and informal history review sessions

4

Measure the veracity and validity of our research efforts by having our work product undergo a peer review process

6

Consider key recommendations for reconciliation; provide guidance on how to institutionalize continued future efforts

5

Share feedback with diverse stakeholders; make appropriate revisions as we weave together tapestry of 7 different mini-reports

7

TCU
Race & Reconcil
Initiative

Delivery of preliminary, RRI Survey Report on April 21, 2021, otherwise known as Reconciliation Day

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
WWW.TCU.EDU/RRI